Satisfied but not Contented

We once heard of a lawyer trying to make a colored brother admit that satisfied and contented meant the same. Finding the witness would not admit it he asked him to give an example where it meant different. To this the witness replied, "I am satisfied Sambo Jones is courting my Lucy while I am here but I am a long ways from being contented." And that is the way we feel about our business. We are satisfied the farmers believe the Moline line of Cultivators that have those dustproof wheels this year, Best Ever Sulky with high foot lift—more yet, the Moline Discs, Walking Plows, Great Western Manure Spreaders are all right, but we are not contented, we want you all to be using them. Did you ever notice how things change as we go along down the stream? It is only a short time ago the doctors told us it would be sure death to a patient with fever to give him ice water. Now it is ice water that cures him. It was only a few years ago the young folks were riding in that old wagon that had such a nice chuckle to it that they called Peter Shuttler—by the way, we will have a car in March of these wagons—but now the wagons are all right in their place, but if you want to please the ladies you will have to buy a Buggy that has Henney on the step. It used to be all you had to do to raise Irish potatoes was to plant any old potatoes on a growing moon and you would raise all you needed. But now they must have Northern Potatoes. So to please our customers and give them the best agoing we went in cahoots with some more Jasper merchants shipped a car from Minnesota and now have in stock the Ohio, the Early Rose, Triumph and Burbanks. They are as nice potatoes as you would wish to see, and moon or no moon you would be safe in planting them. But hold on here, we are about to forget our Dry Goods and Shoes department. We are satisfied you think we have the best line in town but not contented till you come look our stock over. We are getting in an enormous amount of new goods in this line and you are missing a whole lot if you don't let Mrs. Webb show you some of our new Dress Goods, for they are strictly up-to-date and fine as a fiddle. When you read this stop your work, make a bee line for our store and take a look at what we have. Our Shoes, the Walkover and Pingree are sure to please you. Let Mr. Linn place your feet in Shoes that fit your feet and be happy, and still more, remember that our Turkey and O. V. B. Flour stood the highest baking test at the Millers' Operative convention at K. C. May 24 to 26 of any of the 200 samples tested and you can buy it right of

ACTIVITY IN REAL ESTATE

NUMEROUS REAL ESTATE EXCHANGES

Mr. Rathbun Trades Town For Country Property—Some Other Reals.

There has been considerable activity in real estate circles in this locality within the past week or more.

A Farm For City Property.

Mr. Weston who lives 6 miles north-east of town has sold his 80 acre farm to Mr Rathbun for his home in the north-east part of town consisting of a good house and 6 1/4 acres of land. The farm was valued at $2400 and the city property $1700 Mr Rathbun paying the difference of $700. Mr Rathbun will move out on the farm.

Buy's His Brother Out.

Chas Wilson has bought the home of his brother Jap Wilson west of the railroad. The place consists of a good house and 4 acres of land. Jap expects to move to California.

Mrs Boyer Buys.

Mrs Boyer has bought from David

Bayles the property on the Corner of Grand Avenue and Third street formerly owned by A. J. Reed, the consideration being $700. She will give the house a thorough overhauling and rent it.

GETS AN APPOINTMENT

Hugh Magers Becomes a Mail Clerk

It is safe to say that no other locality is better represented among the railway mail clerks than the Jasper vicinity. Hugh Magers a well known young man of northeast of town is the newest recruit to the ranks of the mail handlers. Mr. Magers took an examination in December and last week was notified to appear at Ft. Scott for duty at once. He left Friday morning for that place to take up his new duties.

Hugh makes the eighth young man from this locality that we know of who is now in the employ of Uncle Sam as a mail clerk. Here is a list as far as we know:

Geo. H. Houck, Eli Scott, Ed Magers, Frank Magers, Walter Pray, Ed Lawson, Ben Appleby and Hugh Magers. And possibly others whom we have overlooked.

Take your Game and Furs to Johnston's Second Hand Store. He buys them.

A JUDGMENT FOR $5,000

THE COURT ALLOWS IRA SCHROLL THAT AMOUNT

He Had Sued for $25,000—Case Will Probably be Repealed

Word comes from Newton, Kans. that the jury in the case of Ira Schroll against the Santa Fe Railroad for damages had awarded Schroll damages to the amount of $5,000. Mr. Schroll sued for $25,000 and the verdict was one-fifth of the amount. The case will probably be appealed to the supreme court.

Mr. Schroll's friends in this locality will be glad to learn that he was given a goodly sum.

Bought Some Fine Mules.

Mr. Daffer who lost all of his horses and mules by fire a couple of weeks ago went to the mule market at Kansas City last week and brought home with him two spans of fine mules. The animals are iron grays and are so well matched that it is hard to distinguish one from another of the four.

THE PRESTON MEETING

A Successful Series Closed Sunday Night

The revival meetings at the Presbyterian church at Preston closed last Sunday night. The meetings were conducted by Revs. Bradley and Logan and were very successful resulting in something like 12 conversions and seven or eight accessions to the church. Although the attendance and interest was good the meetings were hampered by the bad weather and muddy roads.

Rev. Bradley and his daughter who accompanies him in his work as a singer left Monday night for Tipton, Mo., where he will hold a series of meetings. Mr. and Miss Bradley made numerous friends during their stay in this vicinity.

Jasper Custom Mills

We have received our new machinery and will be ready to grind corn meal by Monday. We will also have a carload of Flour and Feed and will then be able to supply your needs in this line. Give us a trial.
